

Personnel Committee

Closed Session Report

The personnel committee discussed the departure of the Executive Director and given the uncertainty potential candidates, it would be best to immediately find an interim executive director.

The committee also discussed the importance of an exit interview before the departure of the current executive director.